Theatre of the Oppressed Training Workshops 2017

Devising Forum Theatre

Friday 24th and Saturday 25th November 2017

This popular 2-day workshop will explore devising a piece of Forum Theatre from scratch with a group. It will explore identifying and tracking oppressions, using image as a starting point for Forum, the structure of Forum Theatre, characterisation and rehearsal techniques.

The Actor and the Joker

Friday 15th and Saturday 16th December 2017

This 2-day workshop will explore the roles of the Actor and the Joker (facilitator) in a piece of Forum Theatre. How should the Actor prepare for their role and what should their relationship be with the character they are portraying? How should the Joker encourage interventions? What questions should they ask? And, crucially, how can the Actor and Joker work together to ensure a successful experience for the audience?

No previous experience is required for these workshop; they are aimed at those who are interested in the possibilities of the Theatre of the Oppressed including teachers, drama workers, youth workers, actors, theatre practitioners, activists, researchers, community educators, therapists and social workers.
